Spring blooming bulb gardens are today among the most gorgeous displays of the whole gardening year because striking and artistic mass effects can so easily be secured by making plantings of bulbs in carefully selected shades in conjunction with flowering shrubs and early blooming perennials. Interest in bulb growing is very clearly increasing each year and our bulbs that are grown in various parts of the world by leading bulb specialists are annually represented as prize winners in all of the leading Horticultural Society and Garden Club Shows held in the eastern part of this country.

We take great pleasure, therefore, in presenting to you our 1929 bulb catalog in which you will find listed all of the varieties of spring blooming bulbs used in our most notable exhibit of the year, the prize winning "Bulb Garden," at the Centennial Show of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society.

NARCISSUS or DAFFODILS

American growers of Narcissus bulbs have now proved most conclusively that bulbs grown in this country are a success and that they may be fully relied on from the standpoint of flowering qualities as well as being free from disease.

We have, therefore, added to and enlarged our list of the newer and also standard varieties which have proven successful in our trials. The following list may be considered both complete and up-to-date, as it embodies varieties that can be grown with perfect success by the amateur and the professional alike.

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS

With few exceptions the Narcissus are hardy and strong, growing under ordinary cultivation. The bunch-flowered or Polyanthus sorts, however, should not be trusted to the border.

Outdoor Culture. The Daffodil will grow in any ordinary garden soil and in almost any situation, but prefers moderately stiff, well-drained soil, in situations slightly shaded, such as the herbaceous border and the margins of flower-beds, along the outside edges of shrubberies, on woodland walks, and on the margins of lakes and streams, or for naturalizing in the grass or woodland. Planting may be done in the Autumn any time before frost sets in, October being the usual month for setting out. Once planted they should not be disturbed further than dividing and resetting in August once in three or four years, when they get too crowded. Pot Culture. At the head of the list stands the Polyanthus Narcissus, with its large bunches of fragrant flowers.

For culture, the hints given under Hyacinths may be followed. One very important point is to keep them cool for the first four or five weeks when they are commencing to grow. After the roots are grown and the tops well started, they may be pushed forward more quickly in heat.

Early Paper White Grandiflora

POLYANTHUS NARCISSUS

(For indoor planting only)

The varieties of this group produce an abundance of large trusses of very sweet scented flowers, varying in colour from pure white to deep golden yellow; easily cultivated in pots or glasses and excellent for forcing.

These bulbs now being grown in America take longer to ripen off and we strongly advise purchasers to avoid early forcing. Bulbs started from late October on will give much better forcing results.

CHINESE NEW YEAR'S LILY

No care whatever is required in the cultivation of this beautiful and interesting bulbous plant. Use shallow dishes about three inches deep, into which put about one inch of gravel. Set the bulbs on this and fill in with small stones, and keep the dish full of water. These bulbs do not require to be put in the dark, but a little shading until the leaves begin to grow is beneficial.

Mammoth Bulbs: Each 25¢.; doz. $2.50; per 100 $20.00.

Pebbles, Bulb Fibre, and Fancy Bowls

The growing of bulbs in pebbles or fibre for house decoration, especially the several varieties of Polyanthus Narcissus, has become so universal that we are carrying a special line of the more inexpensive Ornamental Dishes and Bowls for indoor bulb culture.

We also carry specially selected bulb-fibre and pebbles as this method of growing bulbs is becoming increasingly popular. For Fibre and Pebbles see page 30.

DARWIN TULIPS

We strongly recommend this class of Tulips for garden decoration in beds, as well as in groups in the herbaceous border and amongst shrubs. Grown for cut flowers, they will prove very valuable at a time when flowering plants are scarce. They flower during the middle part of May, a period when spring flowers are over and summer flowers such as Roses have not yet come in. The blooms last in condition a very long time. By forcing in pots they may be had in bloom in February or even earlier. The list of varieties we offer below has been carefully selected and includes all the exquisite and new varieties.

BREEDER TULIPS

Breeders are the unbroken form of the old Florist Tulips. Most of the varieties are purple, maroon, or terracotta coloured. They are of enormous size and vigorous growth. These tulips are very valuable for the garden, producing by their refined colours a most artistic effect. They should be treated like Darwin Tulips, but will not stand severe forcing.

BRECK'S RADIO GARDEN TALKS

The Radio public have so unmistakably registered their approval of the Breck's Radio Garden Talks that an unbroken year-around schedule has been arranged, and, unless circumstances over which we have no control make a change of broadcasting hour necessary, Breck's Radio Garden Talks will continue to be heard each Sunday evening at 7:30 P.M. from station WEEI, Boston. These radio broadcasts are given in the interest of better gardening and as a helpful service to amateur gardeners in New England. Join Breck's Radio Garden Club! To do so, just tune in at 7:30 P.M. each Sunday evening, and remember,

"Breck's Seeds are Tested."

SINGLE LATE or COTTAGE TULIPS

These usually come into flower after the middle of May and are in their greatest perfection about Memorial Day; many of these are very fragrant. For grouping in mixed shrubbery and in front of borders as well as for planting in beds, either alone, or with tall, double flowering, late blooming sorts, they are unequalled.

THE BOOK OF BULBS

F. F. Rockwell, (Illustrated) $3.00 (Postpaid) 3.15

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

All Single Early Tulips are suitable for pot culture. The Duc Van Thol Tulips are the earliest, especially suitable for growing indoors. The selection we offer below is made up of the finest bulbs of the best varieties and should give the utmost satisfaction.

CULTURE IN POTS OR FLATS:—Use ordinary garden soil, set three bulbs in a five-inch pot, or a dozen bulbs in a ten- or twelve-inch flat or pan; have the top of the bulb just even with the surface of the soil; after watering thoroughly, plunge the pots in a cold-frame or set in the cellar and cover with coal ashes or sand. They may be brought into the house for forcing about the middle of December, and thereafter at intervals of two weeks, for a succession. With plenty of light, water, and air they will begin to bloom in about six weeks in the ordinary living-room.

Obenotes varieties which we can especially recommend.

Single Early, Keizerkroon.

REMBRANDT TULIPS

(BUTTERFLY TULIPS)

Price: 15c each; $1.25 per doz.; $8.00 per 100

The Rembrandt Tulip comprises a strain of variegated Darwin Tulips. Usually delicate shades with flames or stripes of a darker shade and forming lovely combinations which appeal to the refined taste of many people. Some varieties can be forced to the end of February, but the flowers are not quite so large as the Darwins.

Caracalla. Fiery scarlet and white.

Gretchen. Light pink feathered dark pink.

Pierette. Lilac on a white ground, purple feathered.

Semele. White with pink feathering.

Suzanna. Reddish brown on soft lilac flamed white. Victor Hugo. White feathered brilliant carmine red. CHOICE MIXTURE of all the above varieties.

TULIP SPECIES

The cultivation of these tulips is very simple. They thrive in the ordinary soil of the rock garden, provided it is well drained (as of course it always should be), for Tulips are decidedly averse to having damp feet. There is no need to lift the bulbs after flowering season, for they seem to thrive and increase if left in the ground year in and year out.

BRECK'S HYACINTHS

Hyacinths are among the most popular, beautiful, and fragrant of Holland bulbs. They show almost every imaginable shade of colour, and are suitable alike for house or garden culture.

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS

Pot Culture:—Plantings may be made at any time from September to December, though October is the best time. A light, rich soil enriched with Breck's Poultry Manure, sand, and leaf mould is most suitable; use a five-inch pot and have the top of the bulb just below the surface of the soil. After setting the bulb, thoroughly firm the soil and give it a good watering. The pots should then be set away in a cool cellar or out-house and covered over with coal ashes or some litter. When well rooted, which will be in about twelve weeks, they may then be brought as wanted for a succession of flowers into a moderately warm, light room and forced. To keep the foliage dwarf and obtain fine large flower spikes, Hyacinths, when being forced, should have plenty of manure, water, and fresh air and should be kept near the glass.

Culture in Glasses:—When it is desired to grow Hyacinths in water, they should be placed so that the base of the bulb merely touches the water. The glasses should then be set in a cool, dark closet or in the cellar until nearly filled with roots, when they may be brought into the light. Change the water frequently. Give as much fresh air as possible without letting the plants stand in a draught. It is of importance in growing Hyacinths in the house that the atmosphere in which the plants are growing be kept moist, and as nearly as possible at a temperature of from 65 to 70 degrees. Outdoor Culture. - The bulbs may be planted in beds any time after the beginning of October and before the Winter frosts set in. Any good, well-drained garden soil will answer. Set the bulbs from four to five inches below the surface, and about six inches apart; after the ground becomes frozen, give them a good covering of stable litter.

MINIATURE HYACINTHS or DUTCH-ROMANS

Prices: 15 cents each; $1.50 per doz.; $10.00 per 100

Miniature Hyacinths are not appreciated by the public, probably owing to the rather deceiving name. Yet there is hardly anything more fascinating than a well-grown pan of Miniatures. The spikes are slender, yet well provided with flower bells; the symmetry of the individual plants is indeed remarkable.

Gertrude. Rosy pink, forces well.
Grand Mattre. Deep porcelain blue.
L'Innocence. Pure white.
Perle Brilliant. Pale blue, large bells, splendid forcer.
Roi des Belges. Fine deep crimson.
Yellow Hammer. Pure yellow.

COLCHICUM (Meadow Saffron)

Autumn Flowering

A hardy border bulbous-rooted plant. The flowers come up through the ground without leaves in the Autumn and closely resemble those of the Crocus. The leaves do not appear until the following Spring. Colchicums are most effective in masses in the grass or in Rockeries. As novelties, they may be grown in fancy bowls with pebbles or our prepared bulb fibre.

Each Doz.

CROCUS—Spring Flowering

Plant during September and October, in clumps or masses, three inches deep. If planted along the border of the lawn they can be combined with Snowdrops, Scillas, Daffodils, etc. They are perfectly hardy and may remain in the ground undisturbed for years. Crocus are easily forced. They should be planted very thickly in pots filled with good light soil not too much packed down. The top of the bulb should be just below the surface.

Directions for Growing

LILIES OF THE VALLEY IN BOWLS

Without Drainage in the Dwelling House

In growing Lilies of the Valley it is well to force them in a warm, dark place until 3 inches high (75 to 80°). Then bring them into a cool light window (65 degrees) and when actually coming into bloom put the bowl in as cool a place as possible at night to prolong the flowering period. Don't overwater. Keep surface moss just damp at all times. Drain off excess water.

We guarantee the safe arrival of all Lily of the Valley Shipments. Standard Bowls of Liberty Bells, planted and ready to grow, are packed in special basket containers that materially add to the attractiveness of the gift when sent to a friend. Be sure and include personal greeting cards with all orders for gift shipments.

HARDY LILIES for Garden & Pot Culture

Lilies are among the most beautiful and ornamental of cultivated bulbous plants, and their stately habit and variously-coloured flowers (which are in many cases, highly perfumed) render them indispensable subjects for greenhouse decoration and for the hardy flower garden.

The commoner and more plentiful species may be effectively employed for grouping or naturalizing. Many of them are excellent for border plants when in flower, being extremely attractive in mixed arrangements, if properly placed in respect to height. Many of the strong-growing Lilies are well adapted to planting among shrubs, where the latter are not too thickly placed. By growing a selection of species in pots to flower at different times, a valuable addition to greenhouse decoration is secured over a long period in Autumn and Winter. In the hardy border Lilies should always be planted not less than three in a clump thus  AURATUM. (Golden Banded Lily of Japan.) Immense fragrant flowers of pure white each petal of which is marked with a broad, golden yellow, central band and thickly dotted with reddish brown spots. It grows to a height of from 3 to 5 feet and bears during July and August heads of from 5 to 20 blooms. Bulbs. Each 60c; doz. $6.00; per 100, $45.00.

BROWNI. Immense, fragrant, trumpet shaped flowers, the interior of which is deep cream fading to pure white and delicately tinged yellow at the base; the anthers are reddish-brown, and the exterior is deep chocolate brown. Height of about 3 feet and blooms in July. Bulbs. Each $1.00; doz. $10.00.

CANADENSE. One of our most common native lilies growing to a height of from 2 to 5 feet and bearing in late June and July, from 3 to 10 pendulous blooms varying in color from bright reddish-orange to yellow, spotted dark brown and with reddish anthers. An excellent lily for planting among shrubs. Bulbs. Each 25c; doz. $2.50; per 100, $20.00.

CANADENSE RUBRUM. A variety of Canadense and similar in habit but bearing slightly larger flowers of bright orange-red, spotted dark brown and tinged with a deeper red on the outside of the petals. Bulbs. Each 35c; doz. $3.50; per 100, $28.00.

CANDIDUM. (Madonna or Ascension Lily.) Beautiful, delicately fragrant blooms of pure waxy white borne, during June and July, on strong plants 3 to 5 feet in height. They are of easy culture, growing in almost any soil and location and are excellent lilies for the hardy border; where, in combination with other tall growing flowers such as Blue Delphiniums, they give a striking and delightful effect. Dormant bulbs are only available from August on through the Autumn months. Extra Large Bulbs. Each 35¢; doz. $3.50; per 100, $25.00. Mammoth Bulbs. Each 40¢; doz. $4.00; fer 100 $30.00. Jumbo Bulbs. Each 50¢; doz. $5.00; per 100 $40.00.

ELEGANS VARIETIES MIXED. (Thunbergianum.) There are innumerable varieties of this species of Lily varying in color from pale to deep yellow, orange, and orange-scarlet and from bright scarlet to the deepest crimson; many varieties more or less spotted. They form plants usually from 1 to 1½ feet which produce, during June and early July, from 1 to 4 flowers borne upright. We offer these varieties in mixture only. Bulbs. Each 35c; doz. $3.50; per 100, $25.00.

HANSONI. A rather rare Japanese Lily producing a plant 3 to 4 feet in height on which, in June, are borne from 3 to 10 waxy, thick petaled, slightly fragrant blooms of bright golden yellow, dotted with brownish spots, and with reddish anthers. It is of robust habit, easily grown and when established becomes a permanent fixture in the garden. Bulbs. Each $1.00; doz. $10.00.

HENRYI. (The Yellow Speciosum.) A splendid Lily, the flowers of which resemble closely the Speciosum varieties in form, growing to a height of from 4 to 8 feet, and bearing, in August from 5 to 20 flowers of bright orange yellow, slightly spotted brown, with a green band at the base of each segment. LILIES for FORCING

Most of the varieties of Lilies recommended for outdoor culture, are also suitable for forcing and growing along in pots. The following varieties give a rotation of bloom during the Winter and Spring months:

Candidum, Auratum, Regal, Speciosum, Elegans, Henryi, and many others.

The tender Lilies such as Harrisii usually available in August, Formosum and Candidum obtainable in September and Giganteum in October or November, are particularly recommended to the beginner, as they make considerable growth before freezing weather.

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS

Most varieties of Lilies do well when grown comparatively cool. Moderate watering is necessary until the pots are nicely filled with roots, then an ample supply of water is needed. As Lilies make all their best roots from the tops and not the base or bottom of the bulb, it is an advantage to start them in 4-inch pots later shifting and burying the bulb deeper in 6 inch pots. After potting plunge the pots level to the rim in ashes in a frame or cool cellar. As freezing weather approaches fill around the pots with leaves or litter. When the root system has developed and top growth starts, bring into a moderate temperature. As growth progresses, top dress or water with liquid manure, which may be continued from every two to four weeks, until the buds begin to open. While lilies will sometimes succeed without following out all these details, they are so beautiful that the slight extra care which assures success is well worth while.

FALL PLANTING SUGGESTIONS

Fall planting avoids the bustle and congestion of early spring work, and assures a growing-season of normal length for the newly set-out plants next year. The foregoing pages carry a condensed list of hardy flowers for autumn planting, a more complete assortment of which are found in our General Catalogue. If you have not this fine big book, let us send you a copy now. Please note the following:

TREES AND SHRUBS. Many trees, and most flowering shrubs, can be planted in the Fall with complete safety. They are ready the last of September, and can be transplanted as late as the ground is free from frost.

EVERGREENS are in good condition for transplanting from the middle of August through October,—some varieties still later. Water them liberally. ROSES. In October and November hardy Roses (both bush and climbing varieties) can be planted with marked success. Set them deep, water them liberally, and hill the earth up around them before freezing weather sets in; this, with the usual winter mulch of straw or dry leaves, will bring them through the winter safely.

WATERING IN LATE FALL, particularly in the case of evergreens, will do much to prevent winter-killing. Most winter damage is caused by rapid penetration of frost into dry, porous soil.

WINTER COVERING of perennials and other small plants should be applied after the ground is frozen. A coarse, dry material is better than one which cakes hard when wet.

ROSEN RYE

Plant Rosen Rye to get 30 to 50 Per Cent Increased Yield

Rye cross-breeds like Corn. In this respect it differs from wheat, which will not cross fertilize if two or more kinds are grown together for years. To keep a pure Rye pure, it should be grown away from a common Rye.

Rosen Rye was selected and bred from a Russian Rye, the selection beginning in 1909 in this country by a Russian by the name of Rosen. The new Rosen Rye is a large headed variety which, when pure has four full rows of grains. Farmers who have grown Rye know that 15 to 20 bushels per acre is about what they can expect. Such farmers who changed to the Rosen Rye are now getting 25 to 30 bushels, and 40 to 50 bushels yields are not uncommon.

DUBOIS FENCES

In France, in Italy, and in England, the natural beauties of the landscape are enhanced a thousandfold by the correct use of such charming fences as Dubois Woven Wood Fence, Cleft Chestnut Fence, and English Hurdle Fencing. The value of natural wood fences is actually beginning to be appreciated in this country, and here and there throughout our New England countryside, one sees the soft silver gray setting of a natural wood fence greatly adding to the beauty of small and large gardens alike.

Dubois Fences are made by hand in France of split live chestnut saplings closely woven together and bound to horizontal braces with heavy, rust-proof copper-weld wire. They come to you in 5-foot sections either 3' 10"; 4' 11" or 6' 6" high. A Dubois Woven Wood Fence is all ready to erect as soon as your posts are in place. We can supply posts and rails if desired.

Many people have found that the Autumn is an ideal time for the erection of a fence and we recommend this thought to all who are contemplating such construction.

HOW DUBOIS MAY BE USED

Hundreds of applications of this sturdy fence have been made since it was first brought to this country several years ago, among which may be mentioned:

We also carry Reeveshire Hurdle Fencing and Cleft Chestnut Fencing. All types are on display at 85 State St. Send for our illustrated portfolios showing installations.

HABITANT FENCES

No. 900 HABITANT "GOODWILL" FENCE

IN CANADA, the small rural proprietor, or resident of French descent, is called "habitant." If you are a true lover of the woods, here is a type of fence which will instantly appeal to you. It is the "Habitant," appropriately named because it preserves the quaint, rustic appearance that it brings from the great forests of Northern Michigan.

cedar-sometimes called "the Wood of Durability," because it is unaffected by "Goodwill" Fence looks exactly the same from both sides. Stout pickets, close-set on galvanized iron pipes.

Peeled, natural finish. 4', 5' and 6' 4" heights. Sections shipped with posts complete. Strong gates to match in several styles.

climatic changes. The dark, silver gray tones taken on by this cedar with the passing of time make these fences particularly beautiful. Whole saplings form the pickets in some; in others half saplings are used.

Habitant Fences come conveniently packed in complete section units, including posts, and can be quickly erected or taken down Habitant Fencing is selected Michigan if necessary. Common labor only is required—all carpenter work is done in advance.

Inasmuch as Habitant Fences come in eleven styles, we urge all those considering the erection of a fence, to visit our store at State Street, where samples of all types are on display.

Customers, if possible, should bring in with them or send in to us, a rough sketch of ground plan, with measurements, and we can then advise relative to the proper type of fence and give an accurate estimate of the cost thereof. Stock sizes of Habitant Fences range in height from 2'6" to 6'4" and prices range from 32c. per foot to $2.30 per foot, F. O. B., Michigan. COMPLETE CATALOGUES SENT ON REQUEST
